Make the most of ME

ME is a bank but one with a difference.

They were born at a time when industry super funds wanted to create a bank that offered low cost loans that would enable all Australians to realise the dream of purchasing a home.

Today ME are a fully-fledged bank but that same people-shaped philosophy remains.

To ME it's very simple. The banking world is cumbersome and complex, more obsessed with themselves than their customers.

At ME they are working hard to move on, to reinvent and to really do the things that will liberate Australians to help them get ahead.

ME want to make things easier, put people's dreams within reach, and enable them to live the lives that they really want.

Make the most of ME.
